Anna M. Baluyot and David C. Wiers, the leaders of Satori Energy have announced today they have acquired Select Energy Partners, LLC, based in Chicago, Illinois.

“The Select Energy Partners name, associated brand, and business operation will remain intact. Our collective intent is to continue business as usual, without any interruption attributed to the transaction, and to continue to deliver and create value for Select Energy Partners clients” stated Ms. Baluyot.

Satori Energy will be bringing its robust back-office assets to support, enhance and to continue to grow the Select Energy Partners business. Mr. Wiers noted, “We look forward to welcoming the Select Energy Partners clients to the Satori family and we will ensure top level support is provided for the sales affiliates and current client base.”

“As we searched for a buyer, our hope was not merely to leave our clients in good hands, but wanted to make sure they were entrusted to a veteran firm known for its industry expertise and relentless focus on customers – Satori Energy was a perfect fit” said Jeff Olshesky, former Chief Operating Officer at Select Energy Partners.

Business will continue under the Select Energy Partners name.
